Notes on the

PAT2APES

Translator
Overview

PAT2APES is a FORTRAN 77 program whose sole purpose is to translate “neutral” (ASCII) files generated by the MSC/PATRAN mesh generation pre-processor [1] into incomplete ASCII data files for the APES computer program. The latter must then be edited in order to create complete input data files for APES.

References